WHAT WE LEARN

Welcome to an immersive journey into the captivating world of theater! This program is an exquisite blend of virtual learning and hands-on experiences, designed to enrich your understanding of the art form through six dynamic modules.

Step into the realm of Applied Theatre, discovering its nuances and applications in an engaging online setting. Unleash the power of storytelling through our virtual sessions, where narratives come alive with creativity and expression.

But that's not all! Get ready for an exhilarating offline experience delving into the transformative realm of Theatre of the Oppressed. Feel the energy and impact of live workshops as you explore Theatre in Education virtually, amplifying learning through dramatic means.

Prepare to be mesmerized by the live, in-person magic of Playback Theatre, where spontaneity and connection take center stage. And finally, immerse yourself in the art of facilitation through offline workshops, honing the skills needed to guide and inspire others through theatrical processes.

This program isn't just about learning; it's about living and breathing the diverse facets of theater. Get set to explore, create, and evolve in an environment where art meets action, both online and offline!

All the modules will have components like teaching, self-study and assignments and it is mandatory to complete all the assignments to be eligible to get the Diploma.

STUDENTS' FEEDBACK

This course is a perfect platform to incorporate applied theatre into the corporate learning and development facilitation!! Upcoming GenZ would not accept the traditional way of facilitation, to take out the learning outcomes these applied theatre techniques are essential!

- Siddharth Deodhar, Pune

Facilitators need to upgrade every moment. With this Diploma syllabus structure and submission systems, we are seriously working on every technique of Applied Theatre. Excellent faculties, content, way of teaching which are adding stars to my profile with this Diploma completion.

Thanks for your valuable support in our learning.

- Manjusha Ravi Bhaskarwar, Pune

The Diploma in Applied Theatre course exceeded my expectations! The engaging curriculum and hands-on approach provided valuable practical skills, fostering creativity and collaboration. The dedicated instructors and supportive community made the learning experience truly enriching. Highly recommended for those passionate about using theatre for positive impact!

- Juhi Pathak, Surat

This course has unlocked a fresh path for me to delve into Drama and Education. The faculty are not just friendly but also active practitioners in their respective fields. Their teachings and shared experiences have truly broadened my perspective, allowing me to perceive the world in a more positive and diverse light. I believe this is just the beginning, but as they say, a good start is halfway to success. I feel fortunate to have such amazing teachers and classmates!

- Avishkar Ahmednagar

The techniques and tools taught during the course were challenging and engaging. It helped me discover, introspect, and believe that Applied Theatre can not only be a catalyst in bringing about a positive change in our society, but also helped me evolve as an individual enabling me to understand, recognize, appreciate, and empathize while facing real life situations/problems. The value addition provided by each and every faculty was commendable. I recommend this Diploma course in Applied Theatre for everyone.

- Deepa Raghavan, Mumbai

A strong desire to make some difference and bring action and experience in learning made me take Applied Theatre! Learning was natural and playful. Assignments were fun to meet the deadlines and I was always curious about feedback and grades received. Being with ATI got me more grounded and left me with a lot of gratitude to have received more knowledge than expected.
